Report from Economic & Community Development Office

a. Business Roundtable

There will be a third Business Roundtable held on January 29, 2026 from 5:30-7:00pm. The topics to be discussed include Thompsonville revitalization and funding, The America 250 Celebration and the Enfield Connects Coalition. This is a new initiative started this year to address the rising loneliness epidemic.

b. Grants/RFPs

There was a public input meeting in relation to the Enfield Annex and potential CIF grant. There was overwhelming public support to keep the Enfield Annex as a community center.

c. New Businesses & Developments

The Buffalo Wild Wings is open for business. Planet Fitness will be moving into the former Ocean State Job Lot on Hazard Avenue.

Old Business

a. Development of a Restaurant Week

Mr. Marcavitch presented a list prepared of his office highlighting Enfield's restaurants. Each was reviewed and discussed as possible participants. The commissioners proposed creating a themed week, such as a pizza themed week. They discussed the creation of a passport for participating restaurants to stamp.

New Business

a. Setting a Calendar for 2026

The commissioners reviewed the proposed meeting schedule for 2026. There was a consensus to move the meeting day to Wednesdays.

Motion to accept the 2026 meeting calendar made by Commissioner Cressotti; seconded by Commissioner Pfeifer-Hall and approved unanimously by a 5-0-0 vote.
