Cindy Kinney advised that her last name was spelled incorrectly in past minutes/notes. Aaron confirmed it will be corrected.

Cindy Kinney provided a status update on the First Readers books that will be provided to the readers at their March 17, 2026, and June 1, 2026, ceremonies. She requested America's 250th stickers for the books as they will be funded by the town/committee.

Aaron Marcavitch advised that there was one submission so far from JFK Middle School for the essay contest. He will reissue the call for future submissions.

Cindy Kinney questioned if people could pay online to purchase a Rotary Club veterans banners. Aaron confirmed on the website that you can only pay by check.

Aaron Marcavitch met with Library who has ideas for future programs. He reviewed upcoming events that will include:

February 9 - Eli Whitney Jazz concert

February 20 – Parkman Jazz concert

April 18th – Thomas Abbey monument (need Kelly to confirm date, it can either be the same day as the Jonathon Edward dedication or a different day)

April 25 – Jonathon Edward monument dedication

May 2 – Enfield Community Choir Patriotic Concert

July 10-12 – 4th of July Celebration

November 7 – Veterans day program (update from Lucien)

October – Not sure what event you were talking about

Aaron Marcavitch - If there are events that the Enfield Historic Society, we would like to have it under the banner of America's 250th and advertise it.

Emily Clifford - social media is important, should post at the beginning of the month to advise of events that month and the next and post again at the end of the month for the following.

Aaron Marcavitch talked to Sheila Bailey (Town Clerk) regarding important documents throughout the last 250 years that can be copied and displayed.

4th of July Celebration discussion – found spot for booth, hoping to include organizations

Grant for fireworks (submitted by committee but written by Aaron)

Swag discussion and tshirts. There was agreement to try CustomInk first and set up a shop. Aaron Marcavitch will investigate further and report back on what can happen.

Emily Clifford ask about presenting to council on February 2nd.

Discussions ended at 7:00pm.
